

THE PARTY SACK BEARERS.

The Carson Appeal says suit is to be instituted against the Republican Central Committee to recover the amount due several Republican papers for political advertising. If the Democratic papers of the State will bring suit against the late Chairman of the Executive Committee at Reno for a similar purpose the Independent will put in a bill for a comfortable little sum due. The man who handles the party's funds should be compelled to show what he did with the money—Independent.

It thus appears that Democrats as well as Republicans are addicted to repudiating their just debts in politics.

The Appeal has over $5000 on its books to-day of bad debts contracted by State and County Republican Central Committees.

We have stood this sort of nonsense, until we are weary of being robbed in the name of "the grand old party."

There are numerous people in politics in this section whose only aim is to handle the party sack and salt down 60 per cent., and sometimes more, for their own personal benefit.

These men always insist on running the affairs of the party and handling all the details as well as the money. They are in politics for revenue only, and their assurance and gall is something that takes a man's breath away.

They push themselves ahead with the most unblushing effrontery, and walk right into the society of decent men, where their records as rascals and larceny thieves are an open book, and not only insist on recognition, but assume the role of dictators and party bosses.

The Appeal proposes to drag some of these wretches out of their holes and show them to the public.

The only remedy a newspaper can have when dealing with such people, is a civil suit. There was enough money in the hands of the Central Committee, to pay all claims due the press for advertising, and the Appeal proposes to ascertain what became of it.

Four years ago Senator Stewart gave the Committee $5,000 for the expenses of the newspaper advertising. We have carefully figured up all the money received by the papers for advertising, and could never figure out more than $4,000. Now what became of that other thousand dollars?

We are also cognizant of the fact, although it may be news to some of our contemporaries, that a proposition was made in the Central Committee, during the campaign, to dump the money set apart for advertising into the fight, and leave the papers wholly out in the cold.

The proposition was defeated by a very slim margin. Had the conspirators one more man they would have carried their point.

It is high time that the swindled aggregate of suckers which comprise the Nevada newspaper publishers, got up and insisted on their business rights when dealing with politicians.

Senator Ignatius Donnelly, the author of the book in which was made the claim that Bacon wrote Shakespeare's plays, has a $100,000 libel suit against the St. Paul Pioneer Press. That journal has added to its original charges against the Senator by asserting that he freely offered money bribes to secure his election to the United States Senate.

The premiums that were awarded persons who made exhibits at the Lyon County Fair last year have not yet been paid. It is understood, says the Times, that there is money to pay these premiums, but the matter has simply been neglected.

Chapter 36 of the new laws, makes it a misdemeanor to leave a gate open, and punishable with a fine of from $20 to $100, or imprisonment in the county jail from 10 to 50 days.
